The work of repairing the Presbyterian church is progressing finely. Services are being held in the basement in the meantime.

The Foresters attended divine service in the Presbyterian church on Sunday afternoon and listened to an excellent address by the Rev. W. W. Peck.

MR. URIAH WILSON AND THE POST OFFICE, HIS TEN YEARS SERVICES TO THE RIDING.

To the Editor of THE EXPRESS.

Sir,—Having learned that Mr. Uriah Wilson has the assurance to say that it was through his efforts the Government was induced to give us our new Post Office, I beg your permission to give as brief a history as possible of his dishonorable conduct in connection therewith, that the many readers of the NAPANEE EXPRESS may judge for themselves how much he had to do with it, and how valuable (?) has been his services to the riding during the ten years he has sat in the House of Commons.

The first year that I entered Parliament I applied for a grant for a Post Office here and was unsuccessful. The second year I applied again and met, after much perseverance, with better success; a grant of $4,000 was made to secure a suitable lot, and I was informed that sufficient funds would be granted at the next session to erect a Post Office and Custom House equal to that in Belleville. Parliament was dissolved, but the grant promised me was carried out, and the building is a credit to the town and a great comfort to those who frequent there, as well as to our popular Postmaster and his assistants. Before I had succeeded in getting the promise of a grant from the Government, Mr. Uriah Wilson, then Mayor of the town, visited Ottawa, and when I met him my first enquiry was his mission there; he replied that it was rumored in Napanee that I was likely to succeed in getting a grant for a P.O., and it at once struck me that he had an "axe to grind" as he could at any time have obtained from me the information he was seeking.

I told him there was no chance that session of getting a grant, but he expressed a desire to see the Minister of Public Works and the Postmaster General to satisfy himself, and to please him I called on these gentlemen and got them to make an appointment to meet us (Wilson and I) next day, which they did, and according to appointment we met them and after stating our case we were told, as I had previously been told, that there was no chance for a grant that session as there were too many applications ahead of us, and the revenue from the P.O. at Napanee would not warrant the expenditure, and I am told such was the report made by Wilson to his friends here on his return home.

Now, sir, please contrast his report of our interview with above cabinet ministers with the infamous lying paragraph published in the Napanee Standard, which I now send you together with my letter in reply.

After the grant was secured I called on the Minister of Public Works and asked him to kindly send a man to Napanee to look at the lot I had selected, he replied that I would have to call at the office of the Government Architect, whose business it was to send a competent man to select a suitable location. I did so, and left that night for home with a promise from the architect that he would send a gentleman here the next day, which he did, to meet me.

That gentleman and I took a walk over the town, and after looking at many locations he approved of my choice and the Government bought the property. This completely upset Wilson, his trip to Ottawa re the P.O. was at once explained, the "post was out of the bag," he had resolved in his own mind that if the Government

A GOOD MEETING

A rousing meeting in the interest of E.
B. Switzer was held in the Opera Hall on Tuesday afternoon. There was a large number in attendance and the meeting was enthusiastic throughout. Mr. M. C. Bogart acted as chairman in an able manner, and after a few introductory remarks invited Mr. Wilson and Mr. Stevens or anyone in their behalf to the platform. No response was made to the invitation. Mr. D. W.
Allison was the first speaker called upon.
Mr. Allison on rising was greeted with applause. He had not come prepared to make a speech and would not detain them long. The present election was the most unique since confederation as formerly we only had two parties while at present we have four distinct parties. Notwithstanding this, however there must be two great predominating parties. He said he would not discuss the merits of the various parties before the public but would confine himself to the two old parties. In an able speech he showed how the Reformers had secured responsible Government and the secularization of the clergy reserves. He dwelt on the ill effects of the N. P. and showed that present Government was unfit to manage the affairs of the country. One section of the Government said the other section didn't know anything and the other half called the other section a "nest of traitors." They were condemned out of their own mouth. Some one asserted that protection had made the United States rich. In the States we find that 74 per cent of the wealth is divided among 9 per cent of the population. In concluding his address Mr. Allison said he was going to vote for a farmer.

Mr. T. O. Currie made an excellent address and was listened to with close attention. He dwelt at considerable length on Grand Secretary Welch's betrayal of the confidence reposed in him and effectually disposed of the alleged conspiracy between the Grite, Patrons and McCarthyites to oust the Government. Welch had been the trusted Secretary of the Patrons for five years and at the end of that time he could not reveal anything against the order that could not be refuted upon the public platform. The speech which Welch had made was a type-written one carefully prepared months before and was delivered at Scarboro before five men, a Free Press reporter and 12 boys. Previous to making the address Welch had spent the week with Dr. Montague and John Haggart. He didn't know how much Welch had received from Montague and Haggart, but whatever price they had paid too dear. The speaker dwelt on the iniquitous gerrymander act, supperuations and the senate. Dr.
Montague and John Haggart and other cabinet ministers went around the country in 1894 saying they could see no evidence of hard times. In 1894 there was eleven million dollars in chattel mortgages granted in the Province of Ontario alone. It now takes more than all the beef, pork, cheese and butter that we exported to Great Britain to pay the interest on our debts, and he challenged any man to dis-prove this statement. He then showed that the farmer received no protection.
Take a three-year-old bullock, the finished product of the farmer, and there was no protection on it. Take the hide of that bullock and there was no protection on it.
$1,700,000 worth of hides were shipped into Canada from the United States last year and there was not one cent of duty levied upon them. So soon as those hides were manufactured into leather a duty of from 15 to 25 per cent was put upon them. The shoemaker and the harness maker had to pay an increased price for the leather so a duty of 20 per cent was granted to them upon their harness and shoes. Not one cent of this duty went into the coffers of the country. The speaker then took up the 6 cents per gallon duty on coal oil and handled the subject in an able manner.

ever built a P.O. in Napanee it should be erected on his lot in West Ward, on the corner of Robert and Dundas streets, and so annoyed was he that I had selected Mr. W. G. Wilson's lot that he asked who I had ever heard say that that was the proper place for the P.O. I replied that the last person that I remembered having had any conversation with in reference to it was his friend Holmes. Mr. W. replied that he did not believe Holmes approved of that location as he (Holmes) HAD PROMISED TO ADVOCATE THE SALE OF HIS LOT. So you see every thing was cut and dried by him to get a big figure for an almost worthless lot, no matter how much inconvenience the public might suffer by such an out of the way location; and to convince me of his wonderful influence with the Government, he said he would have the P.O. erected there in spite of me. He made a desperate effort but failed. Had he been your representative at the time he would have got the building just where he wanted it.

Now, sir, a word or two more with Mr. Uriah Wilson and I have done with him for the present.

Very early the morning following my handing in the letter to the Standard in reply to the editor's villainous allusion to the P.O. grant, I had a call from Mr. T. S. Henry, and on meeting him my first enquiry was as to what brought him there so early. He replied that he had been asked by Wilson to come and ask me to withdraw the letter I had sent to the Standard, as he did not want it published. I inquired why not, and asked Mr. Henry if he had said that anything I had written was untrue. No, said he, but he don't want it published. At Mr. Henry's request I called to see Wilson shortly afterwards, and he begged of me not to publish the letter, said if I did he would quit politics. I asked what was his objection to its publication, was there anything untrue in it. No, said he, but you know the truth should not be told at all times. I then left him and walked over to the "Standard" office to interview Mr. Baker, the then publisher of that newspaper, who stated that he did not know there was such a lying article in the Standard, that Elliott wrote it and set up the type and was responsible for the whole thing, and that he much regretted its publication. I then requested him to return the manuscript and I would forego its publication, which I have since much regretted.

Did the lying scribe of the Napanee Standard write the paragraph alluded to merely to gratify himself, or did he write it FOR PROFIT TO PLEASE WILSON? My own opinion is, the latter is the true version, as he was the only person who could hope to be benefitted by it, and certainly he never thought proper to apologize for it.

During the two sessions I was in Parliament I secured for the people of Napanee the erection of our Post Office. I assisted the people of Amherst Island in securing the laying of that important connection between the main land and the Island—the telephone cable. I obtained for the people of Odessa a mail line, two trips a day, between that village and the G.T.R. station at Ernestown, which they had been for years trying to secure but could not. I got a Post Office established in the township of Ernestown called "Thorne," and another in South Fredericksburgh called "Hayburn," and in addition to the above I got several young men situations in the public service, and last but not least I got the consent of the Minister of Customs to permit our popular Customs officer, Mr. G. M. Elliott, to remove his office from the old Benson House to the Grange block on John street, where he removed until the completion of the post office building.

Mr. Wilson has represented this riding ten years, has drawn ten thousand dollars for his services, and all that he has accomplished for the riding, so far as I can learn, was to get for one of his sons a snug situation as mail conductor, and yet this is the Mr. Uriah Wilson who is once more asking the electors to return him to Parliament. Will he get there?

Your obedient servant,

W. M. PRUYN.

THE LETTER REFERRED TO.

Editor Napanee Standard,

Sir,—In the last number of the Standard is a short article, and a most ungenerous one, under the above caption.

It says:—"It is with much pleasure that we congratulate our town upon the success which has attended the efforts of the Mayor and other civil authorities, assisted by our member, to secure the erection of a suitable Post Office building in our midst." The news contained in the above paragraph must, I am sure, have surprised his Worship and the "other civil authorities," when they read it, as much as it did me. How much truth there is in it may be gathered from the fact that weeks before the Mayor and other civil authorities visited Ottawa, I had called upon both the Postmaster General and the Minister of Customs and pressed the claim of Napanee as strongly as I could for a new Post Office and Customs building, and I had the assurance of both those Ministers that they would assist me to carry out my wishes. I then addressed a letter on the same subject to the Minister of Public Works who also promised to aid me as far as he could consistently, and after the appropriation was made the Government architect at his request kindly sent a gentleman here to examine and report upon the eligibility of the Wilson lot on the corner of Bridge and John Streets; and I am only stating what the public know to be true when I say that the rumor having gone abroad that there was a prospect of the Government making an appropriation to buy a lot, the Mayor posted off to Ottawa to satisfy himself as to what credence was to be given to it, as at that time he had made up his mind the Post Office should be erected on his lot in West ward. It is scarcely necessary to say that on his return home he reported there was no chance of getting an appropriation, and yet the readers of The Standard are congratulated upon the success which attended the efforts of the Mayor and other civil authorities. No one, Sir, knows better than yourself through whose exertion the appropriation was secured as it is but three weeks since I told you in front of my own residence that I had great hopes of getting a sum placed in the supplementary estimates and you asked me, if successful, to give you early intimation that you might announce it in The Standard.

It is a matter of small importance to me to whom credit is given, but since you have thought proper to refer to it in The Standard you might at least have been honest enough—as the Beaver and Express were—to give credit to whom credit is due, and it would in no wise detract from the well known popularity of the Mayor. The motive, however, that inspired the paragraph is not difficult to discern.

Your obedient servant,

M. W. PRUYN.

Napanee, 7th June 1886.

STANDARD, JUNE 14TH,
A GRANT FOR THE POST-OFFICE.

It is with much pleasure that we congratulate our town upon the success which has attended the efforts of the Mayor and other civil authorities, assisted by our member, to secure the erection of a suitable post office building in our midst. It was not anticipated that a grant of any kind would be obtained this session, there being so many applicants in advance of us, we were therefore agreeably surprised to see among the supplementary estimates passed during and handed the subject in an able manner. He referred briefly to the Manitoba School Question and wound up by appealing to them to elect Mr. Switzer on the 23rd of June.

Mr. Switzer was called upon, but as he was suffering with a bad cold he did not attempt to make a speech.

The Rev. G. S. White also spoke briefly. Mr. Robt. Speers, of Collinsby, an unlettered plowboy, made a rousing speech, which was well received.

Votes of thanks were tendered to Mr. Currie and the chairman after which the meeting disbanded.

Mr. John Carscallen erected a fine barn on the old Craig Carscallen farm in North Fredericksburgh last week. Good News for the Ladies of Canada.

Less Deception Than Formerly.

The ladies will be pleased to learn that the efforts made with the view of protecting them against fraud perpetrated by some merchants and dealers, have been successful beyond anticipation.

The substituting of worthless and adulterated package dyes for the reliable Diamond Dyes is now stopped in many places, and merchants are finding out it does not pay to sell a customer what is not asked for.

In the past, ladies have suffered much trouble, inconvenience, loss of material and money, by having poorly prepared dyestuffs foisted on them when they asked for the Diamond Dyes. In order to insure continued safety and success in dyeing work at home, ladies should examine each package of dyes offered them, so that they may take nothing home but the genuine Diamond Dyes.

The Little Ones at Home.

Are They Frail, Restless and Nervous?

Paine's Celery Compound Will Make Them Bright and Happy as Larks.

As a rule, parents are to blame if their children are puny, weak, nervous and irritable. The little ones may be well clothed and amply fed, and yet sadly neglected.

It should be remembered that the child inherits many of the troubles that parents suffer from. Thousands of little ones suffer from weakened nerves—a legacy from father or mother. This nervous condition begets irritableness, bad temper, headache, indigestion, stomach troubles and impure blood.

If your dear ones are afflicted with any of the troubles mentioned above, how can you expect them to be bright, happy and healthy? They need your best and most intelligent care, or they will grow up in disease and utter wretchedness.

Give the children Paine's Celery Compound; it is the medicine that is particularly adapted for fortifying the nervous system, for building flesh, bone and muscle, and for producing pure clear blood. Paine's Celery Compound is pleasant to take, it is entirely vegetable, and cannot harm the most delicate organism. It will banish every trace of sickness and disease in a

For each year on the old homestead.

Are things more grand to see,
And a Farmer, yes, a Farmer
Is a man from sea to sea.

That is where a nation springs from
And the life that eddies fills,
That is where the labor comes from
To its factories and Mills—
The Farm is the foundation
Of our glorious country
And a Farmer, yes, a Farmer
Is a man from sea to sea.

But alas the vile oppressions
That our country feels to-day
Hidden down by hard taxation
Just to make the borderers prey.
A Farmer had no hand
In the wrongs by which it's cursed,
For the Farmer, yes, the Farmer
Is the man that's hidden worst.

Never, although to song degree
Our country yet may rise,
By shaking off the bootlers
That seek her for a prize
Never can our fair Canada
Have perfect liberty

Till the Farmer, yes, a Farmer
Rules the land from sea to sea.

The Farmer is an honest man
He never seeks for power
He watches, calmly looking on,
The questions of the hour

But when roused to his duty
Whatever it may be
He will do it, for a Farmer
Is a man, from sea to sea.

And on the 23rd of June
The Farmers out will stand Saying, "we vote no more for party
For the right and rule the land,
And on that all important day
We'll give the rogues the rout
For the Farmers, yes, the Farmers,
Will drive the traitors out.

SALEM.

On Friday evening last while Charles Wagar and son Isdell were attending the political meeting in the Town Hall some tough from Napanee Mills stole his horse and buggy and started for his boarding house, but being under the influence of liquor's meadow he got on the wrong road and as he was returning to town Everton another son of Mr. Wagar met him and a struggle followed but the thief however succeeded in getting away with the rig and headed for Odessa at a mad pace and thus escaped being captured. Mr. Wagar telegraphed to Kingston and Odessa for the authorities to lookout for him. Meanwhile Constable McCabe and Mr. Wagar drove to Napanee Mills to see if he had landed at his boarding house but no tidings could be procured of either man or horse. On Saturday afternoon word was received from Odessa saying we have what we suppose to be your horse but no man. Johnston Wagar another son accompanied by Constable Sills drove to Odessa to claim the stolen property and on arrival there found it to be in Westbrook five miles beyond Odessa. While there they went to Kingston and gave more fully a description of the thief to the police who are all on the watch. They then returned to Odessa and brought the horse and buggy home none the worse for its outing. No trace has been received of the thief as yet.

very short time; it will give natural appetite, sweet sleep, and will make the little ones as happy as larks.

A mighty chorus of gratitude has gone up all over the Dominion from glad fathers and mothers who have had their dear ones perfectly restored to health by Paine's Celery Compound.

Mrs. Powell, of Palace Street, Montreal, writes:

"I have used Paine's Celery Compound with most gratifying results at different times when I found myself run-down to a nervous condition. I have also found the Compound to be an excellent preparation for my children."

"In the early part of the past summer my children seemed to be frail, nervous and restless, and had no appetite for their meals. Fully convinced from personal experience, of the great value of Paine's Celery Compound, I resolved to have my little ones use it. The results are so pleasing and satisfactory, that I am prompted to advise you, for the benefit of parents who are anxious regarding the condition of their dear ones who are frail or nervous."

that Paregoric, Batenman's Drops, Godfrey's Cordial, many so-called Soothing Syrups, and most remedies for children are composed of opium or morphine?

Do You Know that opium and morphine are stupefying narcotic poisons?

Do You Know that in most countries druggists are not permitted to sell narcotics without labeling them poisons?

Do You Know that you should not permit any medicine to be given your child unless you or your physician know of what it is composed?

Do You Know that Castoria is a purely vegetable preparation, and that a list of its ingredients is published with every bottle?

Do You Know that Castoria is the prescription of the famous Dr. Samuel Pitcher. That it has been in use for nearly thirty years, and that more Castoria is now sold than of all other remedies for children combined?

Do You Know that the Patent Office Department of the United States, and of other countries, have issued exclusive right to Dr. Pitcher and his assigns to use the word "Castoria" and its formula, and that to imitate them is a state prison offense?

Do You Know that one of the reasons for granting this government protection was because Castoria had been proven to be absolutely harmless?

Do You Know that 35 average doses of Castoria are furnished for 35 cents, or one cent a dose?

Do You Know that when possessed of this perfect preparation, your children may be kept well, and that you may have unbroken rest?

NAPANEE, FRIDAY, JUNE 19, 1896.

WILSON has been ten years in Parliament. What did he ever secure for Lennox?

ELECT Switzer and he will pay his own railway fare. Wilson travels on a pass and draws mileage from the country.

WHEN a prominent outside party worker arrives in town and registers under an assumed name it is high time for honest men to be on their guard.

LAST year it took all the cheese manufactured in Canada to pay the interest on our national debt. Return Tupper to power and it will soon take all the beef as well.

Mr. Wilson shirked the vote on McMullen's motion to abolish superannuations. He says he is opposed to the system, but he has been ten years in Parliament and never once raised his voice against it.

At Mr. Wilson's meeting in the town hall on Friday evening last, the name of Tupper, the great I, Saviour and Protector of His Country, was not even mentioned by any one of the speakers. His is not the name with which to conquer in Lennox.

WE in Canada have often boasted that a man's religion is no bar to his advancement in public life. Consequently we were grieved to hear one of the speakers at Mr. Wilson's meeting on Friday evening disparagingly refer to Laurier as a French Roman Catholic.

IN Lennox the Beaver says the Liberals will grant a much larger pro-

LAST Friday's meeting in the town hall should be a sufficient barometer to Mr. Wilson of his waning popularity and the distrust and aversion the people have of anything that savors of Tupper. While it is true the hall was comfortably filled, the contrast in the reception accorded Mr. St. John and the other important speakers is very marked. The people who were turned away from D'Alton McCarthy's meeting in the opera house would have filled the town hall to overflowing. When Mr. J. Lockie Wilson addressed a meeting here in the interest of Mr. Switzer the town hall was totally inadequate to accommodate the crowd. J. M. Godfrey drew out a larger audience than greeted Messrs. Wilson and St. John. How changed the times, my countrymen.

At Mr. Switzer's meeting in South Fredericksburgh town hall on Monday evening, Mr. Sam McNeil ascended the rostrum on behalf of Mr. Wilson and held forth to the great amusement of the Switzer men and the disgust and chagrin of the Wilsonites. He held in his hand a book that bore a striking resemblance to a last year's almanac, and with this as his body guard hurled defiance at the Auditor General's Report and Blue Books in general. "Sam" was free to confess that his knowledge of Blue Books was a trifle hazy, "as he didn't take much stock in them, anyway." He took strong objections to the "Trade and Navigation Returns" compiled from official returns and printed by order of Parliament. He believed it was got out by the Grit Party and unworthy of confidence. He urged them to attend Mr. Wilson's meeting on Wednesday as the "true book would be there." Well might Mr. Wilson and the Controller of Customs exclaim: "Save us from our friends." It was the general and freely expressed opinion of the meeting that the Wilson party must be in a pretty bad boat, judging from McNeil's championship of the party. At the conclusion of the meeting three strong Conservatives signified their intention of voting against Mr. Wilson.

This week the newspapers and advocates of both Mr. Wilson and Mr. Stevens will endeavor to injure Mr. Switzer by misrepresenting his position. He will be held up to public execration, as a man who changes his policy to suit the locality he is in, and no doubt a few of the many canards that have been so long circulated privately by Mr. Switzer's opponents will for the first time see the light of day. Mr. Switzer's manly and consistent stand has greatly chagrined his opponents and they have been at their wits end to bring forth something that might be used to his disadvantage. Failing to unearth anything detrimental to Mr. Switzer the agents of both Messrs. Stevens and Wilson have for the past few weeks been going up and down the sidelines industriously circulating that Mr. Switzer had resigned. The nomination proceedings having put an end to the efficiency of the above story a new one has been substituted, and Mr. Switzer is now represented as a man with no less than seven different policies. What Mr. Switzer's opponents expect to gain by such misrepresentation is hard to perceive. He has fought a manly, honest battle, advocating the same policy every day in the week and in every township in the riding. He has presented arguments, facts and figures in support of the principles he advocates and his opponents have met these with slander and misrepresentation. Look out for roorbacks, impersonators and boddlers and leave no stone unturned to place Edmund Burke Switzer at the head of the poll on June 23rd.

THE SITUATION.

Racked with Rheumatism

Unable to Walk, owing to excruciating pain.

After ten years' terrible torture, Cured by Scott's Sarsaparilla.

A. H. Christiansen, writing from the Clifton House, Niagara Falls, says: "I owe you more than I can ever pay. For ten years I suffered the tortures of the damned with rheumatism. Father had it before me, and I believe it is an hereditary disease. My knee joints would get inflamed and if I was out in any 'weather' I was sure to be laid up, which to a travelling man is a calamity. In a score of Canadian towns local doctors treated me, some giving relief, others none. I read that Sarsaparilla was a rheumatic cure, and I asked a druggist for 'a bottle of the best Sarsaparilla on the market.' He gave me Scott's, remarking that it was an improvement on all others, and that he could honestly recommend it. I have taken four bottles, and am as free from pain as a man can hope to be. I was out in a rainstorm two days ago and never felt a twinge. As I said before, to Scott's Sarsaparilla I owe more than I can ever repay."

The best remedy for rheumatism, sciatica, and neuralgic pains—all arising from the presence of poison in the blood—is Scott's Sarsaparilla, a modern concentrated medicine, prompt in its curative effects. Doses from one half to one teaspoonful. At $1 per bottle of your druggist.

000,000. While the trend of everything the farmers have had to sell has been downward, the mortgages have kept growing, and to day we have to pay about $20,000,000 annually in depreciated products, as interest on our loans. The country has been virtually living in the present at the expense of the future and no heed has been paid to the reckoning day that is sure to follow. When the Minister of Finance found that the revenue of the country was inadequate to meet the expenditure, instead of shortening sail, he hid himself over to England and borrowed more money. Millions of dollars have been wasted in sink holes like the Tay Canal, while the country was feeling acutely the pinch of hard times. When we think how money has been passed out of the treasury chest to dishonest contractors and political wire pullers to be returned through this channel to the credit of the Government's election fund it is not to be wondered that the public debt increased from $140,000,000 in 1878 to $250,000,000 in 1895. The N. P. has fostered combines and monopolies, but by no means has it been a boom to legitimate manufacturers. It has injured agriculture, our chief industry, and while we have spent millions in inducing immigrants to land on these shores, the country during the last ten years has not retained its natural increase in population. The present Government retains a hostile tariff against the mother country that discriminates against England in favor of the United States. It bonuses steamships to provide the Australian farmers with Canadian made implements at a lower price than they can be purchased for in Canada. It provides for the cheap importation of Australian mutton, hides and butter into Canada. It favors a superannuation system that costs the country $200,000 a year. It is a government that has passed hundreds of orders-in-council in favor of the manufacturer, and not one in favor of the farmer. It has increased the expenditure from $23,000,000 in 1878 to $37,000,000 in 1894. It has been a vacillating, corrupt and incompetent Government and the business interests of the country have suffered in consequence. It is a government that has as its chief policy the coercion of a sister province and is pledged to pass the Remedial Bill although its passage threatens to disintegrate confederation. On the other hand the Patrons and the Liberals are opposed now have. In Kingston the News says the cotton mills will be forced to close down if the Liberals are returned to power. You pay your money and take your choice.

TORY orators dwell on the great increase in bank deposits under the N.P. as a proof of the unbounded prosperity of the country. This instead of being an evidence of prosperity indicates a lack of investment. If public confidence is restored by the introduction of a stable fiscal policy, the money instead of remaining locked up in saving banks would go towards developing the resources of the country.

The position of the Tupper candidates who are opposed to the Remedial Bill is a unique one. If elected they will support the Government on the minor issues and oppose it on the main measure. One of two things will happen if Tupper is returned. Either the Remedial Bill will become law or Tupper will be defeated and a new election made necessary. Opponents of Remedial Legislation to be consistent should oppose the Government on all other measures until they withdraw the Bill.

At his meeting in the town hall on Friday evening last, Mr. Wilson devoted considerable time in misrepresenting Mr. Switzer. He accused him of changing his policy and referred to him as a "wobbler." We defy Mr. Wilson or any one else to point to one single instance where Mr. Switzer changed his policy. He has consistently advocated the one policy in every portion of the constituency, and by his mainly straightforward course has won the esteem and respect of all. Contrast Mr. Switzer's course with the equivocating course pursued by the ex-member for Lennox, and how marked the contrast is.

If the Tupper Government is returned to power on the 23rd of June the collection of notes and mortgages will continue more rapidly than at present—particularly the mortgages and debts held against the farmers. Shrewd money dealers see to what straits the country has been reduced by the maladministration of the present Government, and are well aware that a Tupper Government would cripple the country still more. Tupper's advent to power would be a signal to the money men to withdraw the money invested in real estate. It is estimated that mortgages will be reduced one-third in one year if the Tupper Government is returned to power, and this would mean ruin to many a struggling farmer.

The subterfuge by which the ex-member for Lennox endeavored to explain away his position on the Remedial Bill at the town hall, on Friday evening last, proved ineffectual. Mr. Wilson not only voted to give the Government Saturday for the purpose of railroad the Remedial Bill through Parliament, but helped the passage of the Bill in committee. Mr. Wilson's vote was cited by Sir Charles Tupper as an evidence that he had abandoned his opposition to the Remedial Bill. The Old War Horse boasted of the ex-member for Lennox's change of front, and Mr. Wilson by his silence agreed with him. Mr. Wilson if elected can be depended upon as a servile supporter of Tupper. Electors, take your choice.

electors of Lennox will have been called upon to exercise their Franchise. Questions of the most momentous importance, affecting the future peace and welfare of our country, are involved in this election. We have reached a period in our country's history when it behoves all honest men, having the true interests of Canada at heart, to break loose from old time party allegiance and unitedly engage in staying off the impending disaster which threatens to engulf us. Let us briefly analyse the situation in Lennox and the issues between the candidates.

Mr. Wilson, our ex-member, is out as the Tupperite candidate. It is true that in some parts of the Riding he is opposed to the Remedial Bill, but on all other questions he is a unit with the "prince of political cracksmen." Let us examine the record of Tupper and his government for Mr. Wilson has no record save as a "wobbler" on the School question and a servile supporter of the Government in everything else.

Ever since his entry into public life Tupper's record has been one long train of extravagance, boodling and corruption. His veracity has been many times called into question and he has scooped to deliberate falsification and misrepresentation whenever it best suited his purpose. Tupper's political course has been one long series of dishonest exaggeration and broken promises and in every way he has shown that he is anything but a man of honor. His egotism and overbearing manner has disgusted the better element in the Conservative party and he is distrusted and feared by the great bulk of our population. Tupper's advent to power would be nothing short of a national calamity. Every wild cat scheme involving the expenditure of large sums of money would receive his sanction and support. Boodling and extravagance would run riot and this young country would be burdened with a fresh load of debt that would inevitably land us in national bankruptcy. Tupper is a man whose moral sensibilities are blunted. He intrigued with the "nest of traitors" and plotted to bring about the downfall of Sir Mackenzie Bowell in order that he himself might secure the premiership. The desertion and decapitation of Mackenzie Bowell takes rank as one of the basest acts of political treachery in the annals of any country. Tupper's bold attempt to bully the members of the House and his laudation of himself is deserving of the disgust and contempt that it has engendered. In forming his Cabinet the "Old War Horse" has sandwiched in all the available members of his family and in this connection it is well to note that the Globe publicly asserts, and no denial on the part of the ministers is forthcoming, that the Tappers have passed a secret order in council granting over twelve millions of dollars to 50 or 60 railway projects. There are reasons to be alarmed at the unscrupulous hands Canada's affairs have fallen into nor is it to be wondered at that honest men are casting aside their old party affiliations and uniting to hurl such men from power. Men who will secretly organize a raid on the treasury on the eve of a general election for their own aggrandizement are unfit to be entrusted with office. Tupper dynasty has fattened at the public crib long enough. It is high time they were turned down. Sir Charles Tupper was a poor man when he entered public life—he is now a millionaire. Where did he get his money?

The present Government is wedded to the National Policy which has restricted trade and unduly hampered the farmer. Under this policy our national debt has increased $100,000,000. Under it the private and public loans of the last eighteen years reached to more than the great total of $450, educational affairs. They favor the reservation of the public lands for the actual settler and had this been adopted twelve or fifteen years ago the population of Manitoba and the Northwest Territories would have been a great deal larger than it is to-day. "Purity of Administration and absolute Independence of Parliament and rigid economy in every department of the public service" are prominent planks in Mr. Switzer's platform. Do away with Tay Canals, Curran Bridges and Hudson Bay Railways and the public expenditure can be reduced not by thousands but by millions of dollars. "The abolition of the Canadian Senate," which Mr. Switzer favors would entail an annual saving of $150,000.

"Tariff for revenue only and so adjusted as to fall as far as possible upon the luxuries and not upon the necessities of life is what Mr. Switzer advocates. Under the N.P. the tariff is so adjusted that it unduly enhances the price of nearly every article the poor man has to buy, while the dearer articles of the rich man are more lightly taxed. Under the present tariff, diamonds are free while the cottons and tweeds of the poor man are taxed 35 per cent. Oil of the attar of roses is admitted free while coal oil bears a tax of 100 per cent. The N.P. taxes champagne 35 per cent, while rice, a staple necessity, is taxed 70 per cent. Corn for the distiller is admitted into Canada free, while corn intended for use by the farmer is taxed. These are only a few of the many glaring inequalities of the N.P. tariff.

"Reciprocal trade on fair terms between Canada and the world," is a prominent plank in Mr. Switzer's platform. What the farmers and people of Canada require is markets for their surplus production and this Mr. Switzer will endeavor to secure for them.

Mr. Switzer favors "effectual legislation that will protect labor and the results of labor from those combinations and monopolies which unduly enhance the price of the articles produced by such combinations and monopolies." He is also opposed to the bonusing of railways by Government grants. He is opposed tooth and nail to the iniquitous Franchise Act which costs the country thousands of dollars and makes it possible for crafty and unscrupulous partisans to rob honest citizens of their franchise.

Mr. Switzer is an honest, industrious, farmer, with a good platform, which he has consistently advocated ever since he received his nomination. He is a man who can be relied upon to stand by the principles which he advocates. Honest and loyal men of Lennox—you who have a hope in the bright future in store for this young and badly misgoverned country see to it that you mark your ballots for Edmund B. Switzer and good government on the 23rd of June.

The Bay of Quinte Conference in session at Trenton passed a strong resolution condemning the Remedial Bill, and expressed their strong conviction of the inadvisability of Federal interference with Manitoba in the management of her own school system.

A FEW LAST WORDS TO FARMERS.

This is an agricultural country first of all. The farmers are in the majority. Farming is the leading industry, and ought to be the most successful and prosperous industry in Canada; but as a fact it is one of the most unsuccessful and unprofitable. You all know this by a very country never was so prosperous, every farmer—Grit, Tory or Patron—knows it. A falsehood and that Tupper is lying. The farmers of Canada are very close to bankruptcy as a class, while individually but comparatively few of them are now solvent. There can be no doubt about this no matter what the boddiers and millionaires say. Now what are the causes of this condition

Government by voting for Switzer. You have stood apart for the sake of party, stand now together for your own sakes. Vote against the Government which has robbed you, oppressed you and insulted you. Vote against the Government which has been piling up our debt at the rate of about a thousand dollars an hour ever since it went into office. Vote against Tupper the arch boddier who is now striving to get some twelve millions more of your money to buy up constituencies from the Atlantic to the Pacific. Vote against the Government which has brought moral disgrace and would bring financial ruin on this country. They stand convicted as a "nest of traitors" and a gang of boddiers. Vote for Switzer and a new Government. As McCarthy said at Napanee no new Government could possibly do worse than the old one has done. Turn them out along with our ex-member, who supports them. The iniquitous voting by order in council of some twelve millions of our money by a rotten and moribund Government in their last desperate struggle to keep on the Treasury benches is so outrageous—so unprecedented in English history or the history of modern nations—that it ought to turn every respectable Conservative and right minded citizen in Canada against such a Government! Let every farmer in Lennox vote against it by voting for Switzer. Had that Government not robbed the producers of this country at all by the national policy and their corrupt extravagance, the fact that they have about robbed this country of its honor and credit and of a decent status among the nations ought to be sufficient to hurl them in this contest into everlasting and infamous oblivion. Let no farmer of Canada—let no decent citizen of any class—degrade himself and sanction their iniquities by voting for one of their candidates or their quasi candidates. As already shown in a former letter the only safe and effective way to vote in this County and Addington is to vote for the candidates who are straight and unequivocally against that Government, and you will make no mistake. These men are Switzer—the Patron—Liberal—anti Government candidate of this county whom the Patrons, Liberals, and the best of the Conservatives and Independents are supporting; and Dawson—the Liberal—anti Government candidate of Addington—who is being supported by Liberals, Patrons, and numerous other good Conservatives and Independents. Vote for these men and you will make no mistake. They are both the friends of the farmers and stand for a policy which will help to extricate them from their present straits. Those of you who have not had the time or opportunity to post yourselves on public questions (having to struggle too hard "to keep soul and body together") need have no hesitation in accepting my statements as true and my advice as good and meant for your and my best interests. You know I am not a politician or wire puller. You know I have never sought

ABOUT THE LIVER.

A lazy, slow or torpid liver influences the whole system, causing biliousness, sick headache, sallow complexion, languor and dullness. Burdock Blood Bitters regulates the liver, purifies the secretions and cures all forms of liver troubles. We say so and here is the proof: I hereby wish to thank you for the great benefit derived by me from your Burdock Blood Bitters. For three years I was troubled with liver complaint and tried everything to no purpose. I had almost given up hope until one day I determined to try Burdock Blood Bitters. I can now say that marked improvement resulted from the use of the first bottle and at the end of the sixth bottle I discontinued its use, being completely cured.

Kind Words from the Fred Victor Mission Bible Class. On behalf of the Fred Victor Mission Bible Class I wish to express our gratitude to you for the box of Chase's Ointment which you supplied in aid of our charitable work to the infant child of Mrs. Browning, 162 river street. Ten days ago the child was awfully afflicted with scald head, the face being literally encased from forehead to chin, and in that brief time a complete cure has been effected. Surely your gift was worth its weight in gold.

"The Railroad Kidney." Railroad employees, bicyclists, teamsters and other men who are subjected to much jolting are often troubled with pains across the small of the back. This indicates the "Railroad kidney," an insidious precursor of serious illness. On the slightest symptoms of backache take one Chase's Kidney-Liver Pill—one is a dose and thus obtain instant relief. For all kidney troubles they have no equal. 25c. per box.

AUCTION SALE OF VALUABLE FARM PROPERTY.

Under and by virtue of the power of sale contained in a certain mortgage which will be produced at the time of sale, there will be sold by Public Auction at the Albion Hotel, in the Village of Harrowsmith in the Township of Port land in the County of Frontenac, on Friday June 26th A.D. 1896, at twelve o'clock noon.

All and singular that cert in parcel or tract of land and premises situate, lying and being in the Township of Hinchinbrooke in the County of Frontenac in the Province of Ontario, being composed of 1 & 2 Mounth Eight is the ninth concession of the said Township of Hinchinbrooke, containing by admeasurement one ago we relied on wheat, barley, oats, potatoes, etc. but they have gone down to non-paying prices. Then we fell back on cheese, and beef, and store cattle, and horses. These have flattened out too. Our last desperate move was towards the "porcher"—which was said to have been "cursed under the law and never blessed under the gospel." True, his carcass is poor stuff to put into the human stomach, but the world still demands the carcass for that purpose and we seemed to have had no conscientious scruples against setting it, to produce the carcass as a last resort to make money. But the hog, too, has gone back on us, as we might have expected from the beginning, for you all know the hog will always go just the contrary way from what you want him to go. We are getting now at last sale $3.50 to 3.75 per cwt.—not enough to begin to pay for the labor and feed bestowed on them. Here we are, practically stranded, with nothing new in sight, to turn to—with the mortgages and chattel mortgages, and municipal and Dominion debts, and private debts, hanging over us like a nightmare—worse than the nightmare—for it only comes to people in the night, but this nightmare of the farm-r is ever present—night and day, Sunday and Monday. The interest on this mortgage, and chattel mortgage, (in 1894 eleven millions were added in Ontario) and private note is gathering strength every hour, and the wherewithal nowhere in sight or in prospect to meet the obligations—threatening to overwhelm him in the end, and we all know one after another is going under in spite of his utmost struggles. This is no overdrawn picture. It is a positive and absolute fact. When Tupper (who has five millions of our money without return and has given scores of millions more of it to other corrupt boodlers like himself) goes over this country as he is now going, telling the people in the cities and towns that the

ment can control, many chief ones can be controlled. The farmers themselves, had they stood together at the polls in the past could undoubtedly have averted much of the evil now upon them. Had they stood together like men instead of standing apart like fools they would have been in a vastly different condition to day. Good governments have much greater power to create prosperity among the people; and bad governments have much greater power to produce adversity among them than many people believe. That and another were the only points on which I found myself compelled to differ from Dalton McCarthy in his able and excellent address recently in Napanee. That Governments have this power for good or ill over the people I am fully prepared to prove, but this is not the place to discuss that, further than to mention two indubitable facts or cases in which the Government of Canada has robbed the people as a whole in the one case and the farmers particularly in the other. The first is the principle of protection in the National Policy wherever it is applied to the necessities of life, in the case of sugar for instance where millions have been taken out of our pockets for the benefit, not of the Treasury but for the making of a few millionaires. The other instance, while not a case of direct adverse legislation is equally chargeable against the Ottawa Government. I refer to the English embargo on our cattle trade. This is a most serious and damaging blow to the Canadian farmer, and it has been proved beyond a doubt that the Ottawa Government is chiefly responsible for that blow, inasmuch as it violated the quarantine regulations, broke faith with England in the premises, and neglected its duty in other ways. That the National Policy with its offspring the combines has bled the farmers you will hardly find a farmer now to deny. The Ottawa Government is the parent of them all. Vote against that ment—there have no axes to grind, that I have no special personal interests to mislead you—that my interests as a producer, a worker, a citizen, are your interests. On the other hand you do know perfectly well that the candidate who comes to you in a "still hunt," and the "side-line" persuader, have their own selfish ends to serve. Why, then, should the farmers not listen to a fellow farmer's advice, whom you know, rather than listen to the subsidised organ, or the campaign spouter who is probably paid with your own money looted from the public treasury? I feel confident and certain that you will do so and that your common-sense will stand by you this time. At any rate whether you do so or not my duty is done.

And in conclusion I would warn you to beware of the usual "roorbacks"—the campaign falsehoods which are quietly retailed at the 11th hour in this hole and that corner, when it is too late to contradict them and expose their falsity till your vote is cast. I say beware of them. The Government side of this great conflict between right and wrong—between honor and dishonor—between future prosperity and present adversity—will not bear the light of day. Its supporters know they have a bad and rotten case. This has been made perfectly evident during the progress of the campaign. My proposition made weeks ago to the two Napanee papers that each paper should give the other side a column every week till after election in which each side might state its case to the other side, and by which each side would hear both sides, (the only fair and manly way)—I say that proposition was not accepted by Mr. Wilson's side, while Switzer's side accepted it. Now what does that mean? It means that the one side was afraid of free discussion—that it did not wish its readers and supporters to hear the other side of the questions in issue. It means that they are conscious of their weakness and would prefer the EX PARTE statement and the "roorback" to open discussion.

Take my advice and pay no attention to those wonderful tales and startling things that will be told you in the fence corners and back yards about the Patrons and Grits and Laurier, etc., just before the voting. Vote like sensible men for yourselves and families, instead of for politicians and heeler.

Yours, etc.,

HAD INDIGESTION!

For a Matter of Some Forty Years or More.

Joseph Gardner, stove dealer, of Bath, Ontario, is a great believer in Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills for indigestion, constipation, dyspepsia, Bright's disease, rheumatism, and kidney, liver and stomach troubles generally.

"I was troubled for over forty years with indigestion and constipation," he writes. "At intervals I suffered from severe headache. I spent dollars and dollars without result until Mr. Ball, our druggist, advised me to try Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. I did so, and must say that they are the only remedy that gave me relief. I would not be without them for anything."

Many people suffer from rheumatism. Bad blood and diseased kidneys bring it on. Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills will remedy all this and cure rheumatism, sciatica and all kindred complaints. Here is a sample case:

"My boy was all crippled up and suffered awfully with rheumatism," writes Mrs. H. Wills, of Chesley, Ont. "He also had a touch of diabetes. The doctors could do him no good, but Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills completely cured him."

Sold by all dealers and Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto. 25c.

When all other remedies fail Dr. Chase's Linseed and Turpentine will cure the worst chronic cold. 25 cents.

travellers and druggists, containing all the latest band with sliding buckle which is sewed in the "pants" on each side at the waist, enabling the wearer to enlarge or tighten the band by simply moving the buckle. It is a vast improvement on the old style V of elastic let in at each side, for this, as soon as the rubber was worn out or broken, was useless.

A comfortable and natty suit for a wheelman is of plaid Scotch cheviot. The coat is a four-button cutaway, has round corners and four pockets, over which is a pointed flap buttons. A gold cap is to be worn with it. All the new coats have a deeper facing this season. In fact, they are faced from the shoulder seam to the front and then back to the side seam. This admits of the introduction of the "pump" pocket on the inside of the coat. This pocket is deep and narrow, and will just hold the ordinary-sized air pump.

There are many things for bicycle wear this season. The array is simply bewildering. Among the little "incidentals" may be mentioned the new silk union underwear for both ladies and men. It differs from the ordinary in only one respect--up the back and front is a wide strip of finer weave than the rest of the garment, and this prevents the gradual "creeping up," as the riders express it.

The "Kelsey" Corrugated Warm Air Generator.

Any ordinary Hot Air Furnace will produce heat if you will only supply enough fuel. The "Kelsey" has several special and valuable features but most important is that it will give more heat with less fuel and is the most durable heater made.

The "Kelsey" fire pot being constructed of several upright, tubular, corrugated, cast iron sections (see cut) around which the fire passes and up through which the cold air passes while being heated, and this entire section being wrapped with a heavy steel casing which becomes heated by the fire striking it when passing down outside of upright sections towards smoke pipe, it in turn warms the air that passes up between this steel casing and the galvanized iron casing, this explains why the "Kelsey" has three times more radiating surface and warm air capacity than an ordinary furnace. The "Kelsey" heats every room evenly, wherever located, with a nice, mild, healthful warm air that will not injure your furniture.

The "Kelsey" will heat rooms 60 feet distant.

The "Kelsey" does not heat your cellar.

The "Kelsey" is absolutely gas and dust proof.

neighboring country people and the tramp pickers, who come partly from the city of Bordeaux and partly from the country side of the Dordogne. This army, the women with scissors and wooden baskets, the men with big-galvanized buckets, carried on a pole across the shoulders. These are the foot soldiers.

The baggage wagons are represented by big ox carts, but there is neither cavalry nor artillery. When the crop is heavy the young ladies of the chateau do not disdain to join this army themselves--so they may be called the reserve. And fine sport it is for these elegant young girls to put on short skirts of fine calico, and pretty little wooden sabots, to wear the peasant head dress of striped Madras, and to work among the vines.

All these workers march in procession to the fields; each cutter takes possession of a vine, and the work begins. The women cut the grapes into the wooden baskets, the men empty the baskets into the big buckets, and the buckets, when full, are loaded on the ox carts. Each ox cart, having received its load, is driven to the great tub; but at St. Emilion, where the old traditions are scrupulously preserved, the fruit is often carried to the tub on the men's heads. But one way or another the grapes all go to the tub, and thence to the press, while the gay village songs, resound, and the men and girls frolic together as they work.

The first treading separates the seeds from the grapes, and when these seeds have been thrown to the chickens and turkeys, who are very fond of them, the pulp and the must are borne to the vat, which mighty tun will hold anywhere from 1500 to 2500 gallons. When this is full the trap is closed, and is all ready for fermentation. And while the first bubblings of the must go on inside the harvesters are cutting grapes for the next vat. And so it goes on.

At night the pickers sleep on straw beds, after a supper of thick soup and potatoes. This life will continue for 10 weeks, when the season will be closed by the inevitable solemn visit of the pickers to the proprietor of the chateau in the courtyard. They present him with a bouquet and a speech. He replies in feeling words, and distributes silver dollars among them.

The vintage over, the cellars are visited every day to see if fermentation has ceased in the vats. Generally this happens at the end of eight days. Three or four days longer they wait until the wine has cooled, and then the vats are tapped, and the new wine is set free for the long and careful treatment which it is to receive before it is ready for use.

First, the wine of all the vats is mixed together, so that the whole may be homogeneous; then the dregs are drawn off; the wine is drawn again and again, and left to settle, and so on. Finally comes the all-important visit of the wine broker, whose judgment can make or mar a whole crop. If his verdict be favorable, the proprietor smiles, and all is well for another year.

WORLD FORMATIONS.

PROF. SELWYN TALKS ON THE LAURENTIAN ROCKS.

The Distinguished Canadian Claims That They Formed Part of the Earth's Original Crust—The General Conclusions Arrived At.

President D. Selwyn, C.M.G., F.R.S., delivered an address to the Fellows of the Royal Society and their friends in the Normal School in Ottawa recently on the origin and evolution of archæan rocks, with remarks and opinions on other geological subjects. These archæan rocks are the Laurentian formations and Dr. Selwyn claims for them the position of being of the original crust of the earth, which formed at one time the cooling process. He reminded the audience that the deepest ocean and highest mountain were to the earth's diameter, just what the roughness on the skin of an apple or orange were to the whole fruit. He also remarked that there was more truth than poetry in the generally unbelieved statement that stones grow. On several points Dr. Selwyn differed with geologists who were guided by theory or governed by authority. He said geology as well as theology was often hampered by these. With a diameter of the earth, Dr. Selwyn explained how very little was known of the interior of this globe. He had also a map of the Province of Victoria, Australia, where fifty years ago he surveyed the granite formations and drew certain conclusions there from which subsequent observation had not caused him to alter.

In speaking of the ages which must have passed during the earth's history, he noted that eminent geologists differ from 28,000,000 to 350,000,000 of years, all of which went to show a very convincing proof of our ignorance concerning this great subject. They might as well speculate as to the age of the universe. The conclusions he arrived at were:

- 1.—No ocean or hydrosphere in early or Lower Archæan ages; consequently no life.
- 2.—First evidence of oceanic of aqueous and eruptive volcanic action in Upper Archæan or Huronian formations.
- 3.—Stratiform structure is not in itself evidence of aqueous deposition.
- 4.—Original igneo crystalline and non-aqueo-sedimentary character of all Lower Archæan rocks.
- 5.—Granite, like its congener, lava or trap, was formed at many geological periods by forces operating at limited depths within the lithosphere giving rise to gaseous and thermochemical solutions, fusion and crystallization.
- 6.—Granite is rarely, if ever, intrusive and never unless of Archæan age, eruptive.
- 7.—Neither the formation of granite nor volcanic eruptions are the result of, or are influenced by central heat.
- 8.—Land and water, or oceans and continents, have repeatedly changed places in the millions of years during which this triline sphere had been developing itself, always in a progressive never in a retrogressive manner, as is implied by the recurrence to central heat from which we started.

Death of Niagara.

Writing of "Niagara as a Timepiece," in Appleton's Popular Science Monthly, Prof. J. W. Spencer says:

Fifteen hundred years ago the terrestrial movements raised the Johnson barrier to the Erie basin so high that the waters of the lake reached not merely the level of Lake Michigan, but the point of turning all the water of the upper lakes into the Mississippi drainage by way of Chicago. But the falls were then cutting through the ridge, and when this was accomplished, before the change of drainage was completed, the surface of Lake Erie was suddenly lowered by many feet, and thus the falls were re-established for some time longer.

Slowly, year by year, one sees the catenact wearing back and suggesting the time when the river will be turned into a series of rapids; but another silent cause is at work and one not easily seen—namely, the effects of the changing level of the earth's crust. From the computations already referred to "The world is ever as we take it. And life, dear child, is what we make it."

This was the sentiment of an old lady to her grandchild Mabel. And many a Mabel has found it to be true, and she has taken care of her health. She keeps on hand a supply of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and so is not troubled with those wasting diseases, weaknesses, "dragging-down" sensations and functional irregularities that so many women endure.

"Favorite Prescription" contains no alcohol to inebriate; no syrup or sugar to derange digestion. As peculiar in its remedial results as in its composition.

As a powerful, invigorating tonic, it imparts strength to the whole system, particularly to the womb and its appendages. For feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is unequaled as an appetizing cordial and restorative tonic.

A Book of 1000 pages, telling how to cure these diseases by home-treatment, sent FREE on receipt of 31 cents in stamps to prepay postage and duty only. This book is profusely illustrated with wood-cuts and colored plates, also with a vast number of reproduced photographs of those cured by the use of "Favorite Prescription" and without having to go through the ordeal of consulting a doctor. Full names and addresses are given so you can correspond and learn their experiences in curing themselves. Address, with stamps, WORLD'S DISPENSARY MEDICAL ASSOCIATION, No. 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

Mrs. Jos. G. COLLINS, (P. O. Box 187) of Alfred Centre, Allegheny Co., N. Y., writes:

"I took Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for three months and it helped me more than all the other medicines that I had taken. Had been sick for four months with uterine troubles—can now be around on my feet without any trouble whatever; before taking 'Favorite Prescription' I could hardly get around at all. I hope this statement will benefit others."

FINEST IN THE WORLD.

The New Cycle Club House of the Kensington Wheel Club.

What the English papers call the "finest cycling club house in the world" is that of the newly formed wheel club at South Kensington. It is called Herford House and a few hundred workmen have just finished the transformations that have been going on about the buildings and grounds.

The wheel club can well afford a handsome house, for in its membership are forty members of Parliament, and a great many of the wealthy nobility. The house is sumptuously fitted up and furnished throughout. There are dining rooms, drawing rooms, sitting rooms, billiard rooms, smoking rooms, conservatories, ladies' sitting and dressing rooms and all the largest and best rooms open out on the beautiful grounds at the back of the house.

The grounds are quite secluded and admirably suited to the purposes of a cycling organization. A well made wooden track of four laps to the mile has been built, and around all parts of it are vast amounts of room for spectators. This track is twelve feet wide, broadening to twenty feet at the bends, the banking being built up for a speed of twenty miles an hour. The track is not intended for professional racing, but is to be devoted principally to the use of the club members who want to keep their smoothing in private.

THE FETCHING TYPE.

THE APPEARANCE OF THE SUMMER GIRL OF THE SEASON OF 1896.

She Will Don Shirt Waist and Bell Crowned Sailor or White Swiss, Grass Linen and Fluffy Parasol, but in Either Will be Charmingly Delightful.

The summer girl has made her appearance. She came out along with the early buds and blossoms that burst forth during that midsummer week in May. It's a pity there isn't a new name for her, for the term has become almost as hackneyed as the new woman. But whatever may be said of the term, the girl herself is as fresh and blooming as ever—more so, indeed, for she has been giving more attention to physical culture and development than ever before.

It was funny to see shirt waists and straw hats when one carried an umbrella every day in preparation for the expected shower. A number of the waists worn during the hot week I have been speaking of were those left over from last summer. Among the new ones, those Persian waists seemed to be the favorites. Nearly all the new waists are made with removable white collars, hence the other waists are cheaper. It is quite correct to wear a ribbon around the neck in place of the white collar, but there is nothing to replace the cuffs, unless one ties narrow ribbons around the wrist-band. An inch ribbon tied in a fetching little bow at the back of the arm is rather effective, and coincides with the general tendency to make shirt waists more elaborate.

Some very dainty waists are shown made of white dotted Swiss over green silk, and trimmed with butter lace.

In regard to waists in general, I have noticed that if stripes or bands of lace insertion are used as trimming, the stripes are made to run up and down on an ordinary garment, and round and round for an elaborate evening dress.

Sleeves of thin materials are very elaborately trimmed. Zig-zag trimming on the puffs is a great favorite. An embroidered ecru net gown was furnished with sleeves that almost lost their identity in the mass of flounces and puffs that composed them. Another peculiarity about this gown was the trimming of the skirt. Flounces, accordion pleated, were made to curve down in front and up the back, and they covered the entire length of the skirt.

It is hardly possible to make skirts of thin materials cut in the present fashion, without using some trimming. Ribbon and lace in alternate diagonal strips of eight or ten inches are set on around the bottom of the skirt. Vandyked flounces of lace are also in favor.

Many waists are made of a plain material with figured sleeves and skirts. A figured organdy has a white Swiss and lace wrist with sleeves like the skirt.

A beautiful dress worn by a beautiful woman last Sunday was made of dark blue silk with a fine, pale yellow stripe. The jacket was made of the same material in the back with tabs that were lined with yellow. In front the whole waist was yellow chiffon. The sleeves were of silk, tight to the elbow with a little band of yellow simulating a cuff. She wore a yellow straw hat with pink rose-buds, and yellow gloves.

down stairs without clasping my hand over my heart and resting. In fact, it would almost take my breath away. I suffered so I did not care to live, yet I had much to live for. There is no pleasure in life if deprived of health, for life becomes a burden. Hood's Sarsaparilla does far more than advertised. After taking one bottle, it is sufficient to recommend itself." that are working their way up from the tropics.

Some of the daintiest things that the fair shopper buys are the pale pink and blue and green dimity night dresses and petticoats, trimmed with lace. The skirts are especially fitted to wear under thin summer dresses.

The last thing, but far from the least important, that the summer girl buys is her parasol or—more properly speaking—her parasols, for she has one to match every dress if possible. There is the grass linen one either plain or dotted and laid over tinted silk to wear in the mornings, or with a grass linen veil at any time of day.

Then there are the Dresden silks which can be carried with any kind of costume. Most of these have cambric handles, or what have always been called Dresden handles, and are of little glass marble like knobs at the ends.

Then comes the lace and chiffon shades. These have very little to do with the parasol, but they are a substantial part of the summer wardrobe. Most of these have cambric handles, or what have always been called Dresden handles, and are of little glass marble like knobs at the ends.

A pretty trimming is alternate rows of lace and old rose ribbon running around the parasol. Indeed, all the new parasols have stripes running around and set up and down on the silk, but never the whole length.

An expensive black chiffon parasol has a bow of velvet satin ribbon and a bunch of violets on the small end. There is also a bow and a bunch of flowers underneath on the handle.

All the handles have some sort of decoration, either a bow or ribbon or flowers or a tassel.

An unique design is a cherry handle with red cherries carved out of ivory and beautifully and perfectly suited. These vary in price according to the silk covering used.

Altogether the summer girl will be known by her parasol this season more than by any other accessory to her costume.

years of the life of the river only the Erie waters flowed by way of the Niagara River, and only for 8,000 years have all the waters of the upper lakes been feeding the falls. If the terrestrial movements continue as at present, and there appears no reason to doubt it for the continent was formerly vastly higher than now, then in about 5,000 years the rim of the Erie basin promises to be raised so high that all the waters of the upper lakes will flow out by way of the Chicago Canal. Thus the duration of Niagara Falls will have continued about 37,000 years. But the lakes will endure beyond the calculation of the boldest horologist.

Expensiveness of High Speed.

As an instance showing how expensive speed becomes, an instructive comparison can be made between the new British naval vessel Desperate and the Cunard line steamer Lucania. The former is at present the fastest vessel in the world, having shown a speed of 31 knots, or about 36 miles an hour, and the Lucania being the fastest passenger steamer. The Cunarder is a 12,000-ton boat, with 32,000 horse power, while the Desperate, one-fortieth as large, requires one-fourth the power. The conclusion is, that to gain, say, one-third more speed, ten times the power must be used.

To Prevent Hydrophobia.

A correspondent writes that about six years ago he saw an item in a newspaper "stating that a German physician was going to die, and he wished to make known the discovery he had made in relation to the treatment of a mad dog bite. The prescription he never knew to fail, and he had tried it many times with men, cattle and horses. It is this: Simply wash the wound as soon as possible in a little warm vinegar and water, and put a few drops of muriatic acid into the wound. This will neutralize the poison and prevent the disease which usually proves fatal."—Boston Journal.

The Earliest Year.

The earliest year consisted of twelve months, having each twenty nine and thirty days alternately, thus making 354 days. This being found too short, it was lengthened to 360 days, and afterward to 365.

THE CHIEF ENGINEER.

The "Empress of India's" Chief Engineer Tells an Interesting Story.

Mr. Francis Somerville, one of the best known men in the steamboat traffic on the rivers and lakes of Ontario, having been engaged in this business for fifty years, and who resides at No. 195 Upper Colborne Street, Kingston, speaks as follows of his recovery from the sickness which has affected him for some time.

Said Mr. Somerville: "The grip left me with kidney troubles and gravel. I had severe pain over the kidneys and in the small of my back, also between the shoulders and in the bladder.

"The urine was very dark-colored with a great deal of muddy sediment. I went to Mr. McLeod's drug store and bought two boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills. I have taken them with what people tell me is the usual good result.

"They have cleared the urine, removed the sediment, relieved me of distressing pain in the back and between the shoulders, and have built me up in a surprising manner. In fact, I am entirely free from the troubles which affected me before taking these remarkable pills, and I recommend them as a certain cure for all troubles arising from kidney disorders."—Whig, Kingston.

ered in school at the side of the house, and another one pleasantly situated in a hollow in the grounds, with asphalted surface. The wooden bicycle track, on which the experts will disport themselves, will pass over it at each end. The space in the centre will be marked off for lawn tennis and other lawn games.

Twelve hundred persons attended the opening of the club house and grounds. The club has more than 700 members. About 250 applicants have been black-balled, and there are still about 1,000 people awaiting action on their applications. Among those elected are forty members of Parliament. The following names, which are great in England, are to be found on the rolls: The Earl of Portarlington, the Earl of Lauderdale, Viscount Hardinge, Lord Basil Blackwood, Lord Terence Blackwood, Lord Robert Cecil, Lady Jane Taylor, Lady K. Drummond, Lady Mary Shelley and Hon. Mary Henniker. The names of the committee on selection of members is kept a secret.

The wheel club has another house at Albert Gate for the convenience of members who like to ride in the parks, and still another house will be built up the river. At all of the houses bicycles of all the standard makes are kept for hire, and the service in all ways is of the best.

DOES IT MEAN WAR.

A Reduction in the Price of Bicycles Now Impending.

Close observers of the bicycle business this season have all claimed that the great rush of newcomers into the trade was bound to result in the reduction of the retail price of high-grade bicycles, says New York Sporting Life. This proposition was stoutly denied by those interested, who claimed that the demand exceeded the supply and that it would be years before the latter would equal the former. Notwithstanding these claims there were rumors on all sides of the cutting of prices by the makers of the many new wheels put on the market this season. There was considerable foundation for the rumors, and it was known that a number of the machines could be bought for less than the catalogued prices.

But one result could follow this cutting of prices by the little makers. As soon as the big manufacturers found the competition was affecting their business, it was only natural that they would meet it, and as a result, there was bound to be a slaughter of prices in bicycles. It would appear as if the time for this action had arrived. Last week a circular was sent out by a leading western firm telling its agents to meet competition. Saturday a circular was received in this city from one of the greatest manufacturers in the United States, viz., the Pope Company, stating that they had reduced the prices of one of their makes of wheels from $80 to $65. The circular states that the price of their leader will be maintained till the end of the season.

This action on the part of two such great manufacturers of bicycles is bound to be followed by other leading makers, and, while a pretense of keeping up prices for the rest of this season may be made, it does not take any great foresight to see that the retail price of high-grade bicycles next season is bound to be from 20 to 25 per cent. below present rates.

THE SUMMER GIRL.

and she was just in style of blonde that looks well in yellow. A dark silk like the one described, with light trimmings, is the safest kind of dress to buy if one cannot afford many. It is cool on hot days and never looks out of place on a cool day. It also admits of wearing a jacket with it; which is a great advantage, for nothing looks so forlorn on a cool summer day as a white or light colored dress dangling below a dark coat.

It is interesting to follow the summer girl about when she is doing her shopping for the coming campaign, says the Philadelphia Press. There is no difficulty in spotting her, for the first place to which she rushes is always the shirt waist material counter. There she buys percale for morning wear. For these she buys a plaid silk tie. She also purchased at this counter a couple of Persian dimity waists and if she can afford it she gets one made of grass linen. These admit of either white or black satin butterfly ties, or any pretty four-in-hands.

She does not buy a narrow gift belt; she has already done that and she is sorry for it. She gets a narrow leather one. Spangled belts need not necessarily match any tint in the waist. A pale green spangled affair, that reminded one of mermaids and seaweed and the like, looked very pretty with the blue dotted grass linen with which it was worn.

Next in the route of the summer girl comes the millinery department. Here she has already bought the hat she is wearing with its nodding blossoms and fluffy tulle, but she wants a hat to wear at the beach and she comes back to her old friend, the sailor. The newest sailors have bell crowns and they are not the kind that curve gently in at the middle, but they have a sharp angle between the upper and lower sections of the crown. A very fine straw is used in hats of this kind, after the fashion of the Panama sailors.

This picture shows the method of dressing the young master of the household for the summer of 1896.

Red Hair All the Rage.

The days of the bleached blonde are numbered. When rapid young women took a fancy to this particular shade of hair there was a panic in the camp of the neutral blondes, and a stampede for the hair-dressing establishments of the town followed. The color that has succeeded the blonde, however, is of just as pronounced a shade and retiring women whose hair is of this particular hue will shortly find themselves in the same predicament as were the blondes. This new color is called variously, chestnut, auburn and bronze. In reality it is red, but not too deep a red. One application of dye, carefully put on will give the proper shade and place the girl on an up-to-date plane of beauty. The new color is not at all difficult to obtain, but as it must be gotten by dyeing instead of by bleaching, as was the case with the blonde hair, the process must be repeated at regular intervals. Any shade of hair may be dyed that color so that with care the dye lasts for several weeks. One woman wanted to know whether or not the dye would wash out if she went out in the rain, and the dresser told her that if properly applied the dye would stand the ordeal of sea bathing.

The Necktie Saver.

A bright wife writes the Chicago Herald: It takes about fifteen minutes to make a tie, and there is no need of a husband's going without plenty of neckties in order to provide for his family, and no reason why he cannot look as neat in this respect as he did before marriage.

After some little experience with the silk ties it occurred to me one day that I might save something on full dress ties. As a result, I made twelve evening bows for 25 cents, such as cost 20 or 25 cents each at the stores. One yard of Victoria lawn or India linen makes the dozen ties. With these care must be taken in putting on the cross piece to the bow, so as not to muss it with the fingers or the bow will not look fresh. The same strap and hooks will do for several of these bows, for when one is soiled it can be thrown away and the accessories tacked upon another bow.

A dozen (more or less) new fresh ties are a very acceptable present to the husband, and more especially if it be the work of the wife's own hands, and something to remind the husband, rich or poor, that whatever comes the wife stands ready to do her part.

The Low Collar.

It is a great mistake for fat women to suppose that a low-cut collar is becoming to them. It very rarely is. There is something almost disgusting about a double chin in bold relief, and the lines of a stout person's lower face are much better left to the imagination than plainly brought out by a collar that is turned away. This only partially applies to full dress, where the shoulders take away the gazer's eye from the face. But it does apply to the Summer Bynode collar.

From The Toronto Globe Sept. 5th.

Odorama is the name of the latest thing for the teeth, introduced into Canada by the Aroma Chemical Co. It seems to be meeting with the appreciation of the elite of Toronto at any rate, owing, no doubt, to it having been endorsed by well-known professional experts as much as to recommendation from one to another. That it is a good thing is beyond question, that it will rapidly become popular is equally certain.

The Craze.

The bicycle craze seems to be at its height and it is very dangerous for pedestrians to cross any of the principal thoroughfares without being run into by a cycle, as none carry bells. Much more dangerous is it to the eyes to go about not wearing glasses when needed, or those fitted by incompetent men. A. F. chinneck, graduate optician, is prepared to guarantee a fit to any eye which needs help, or place the patient in a position to obtain eminent medical advice.

A Rousing Meeting.

Finkle's hall, Newburgh, would not begin to hold the jam that crowded into the village from every direction to welcome Mr. Dawson, on the 11th. And it is conceded on all sides that it was the best political meeting ever held there, it being a common remark all over the hall "what a contrast from Mr. Bell's meeting." Mr. Bell came into the village alone and forsaken. No friends to greet him, no committee, no organization—neglected by his friends and pitied by his opponents. Torn to pieces, not by his opponents, but by a gentleman who had stumped the constituency in the Conservative interest in the last contest between the two parties—and who at their meeting did not represent Mr. Dawson. But was called on by Mr. Bell's chairman in the hope that he would help Mr. Bell, but who turned on them and literally annihilated Mr. Bell and any possible chance he had of getting even a fair support from old Conservatives who might possibly have voted for him for party sake, until that party was shown up in all their corrupt and dishonest methods by this gentleman. Contrast that meeting with the welcome Mr. Dawson received on the 11th. Enthusiastic committees had been appointed among his admirers and had arranged everything. They had nearly doubled the size of the hall (where Mr. Bell had found it too large) by taking in a billiard room, but at even double the size it was before, it would not hold the crowd of enthusiastic supporters and admirers of Mr. Dawson that clamoured for admission. Plenty of good music was provided and everything made pleasant as possible for such a large crowd. Mr. E. J. Madgen was chairman and handled the meeting in his usual clever and pleasing manner. Addresses were delivered by Mr. J. B. Aylesworth, H. M. Deroche, Mr. Edward and Mr. Dawson. Mr. Aylesworth's address was a short one, plainly stating where he was as a Canadian, a farmer, and a supporter of the great Liberal party, all put in his usual happy style. Mr. Deroche followed in a more lengthy address, attacking with vigor the Tupperts, the nest of traitors, Tay Canal, superannuations, and all kindred evils that the present government is heir to at the expense of the farmer and working-man. A more vigorous or scathing indictment of corruption the audience could hardly wish for, and the audience were the sufferers from the evils he denounced they could not help being pleased and showed it. Mr. Edwards replied for Mr. Bell, and although he agreed to take one hour he took very much more time. He was given a very patient hearing and very clearly showed his surprise that his tactics to steal the time of Mr. Dawson's meeting did not worry his opponents who gave him all the time he wanted. His arguments were of the schoolboy style that hurt none, and so they let him fire away at a few straw men that he put up to fight at, total-

A Tribute to his Worth.

Tobias Butler died very suddenly at his residence, Deseronto Road, Tuesday morning from hemorrhage of the lungs. Deceased was for over forty years in the employ of the Rathbun Co., directing the Co's lumbering operations in Hastings, Addington and Frontenac. He was a faithful member of the Catholic church and a liberal in politics. He is survived by his widow and the following family: M. J. Butler, C.E.; E. J. Butler, Dr. Tobias Butler, Geo. A. Butler, Mrs. John McKenty Napanee, and Misses Libbie and Ella Butler. He was about sixty-five years of age. The following tribute to his worth is from the pen of one who was intimately acquainted with him; "It is seldom in the annals of any man's allotted time that one is enabled to subscribe to a character such as that of the life of this one great good man whose name heads this article. The application of the term "great good man" is used advisedly and the whole surrounding county who knew him are ready to certify it is correct. Frugal, temperate and honest to a degree only possessed by a spirit in man in perfect accord with the commandments of true spirituality; with a morality second to none, a living exhortation to right, in which any deviation from right paths were to those who met and knew him a broad lesson of God intent and wishes. His integrity was such that his word was sufficient with all with whom his life came in contact. In council, with his interests in business life, his advice was preeminent and sought for and his position was never disputed, because he never would nor could use his judgment adversely to the dictates of a refined conscience. It was reserved for him to assume the place allotted to the brightest and purest jewel of the Rathbun Co. business crown. In his associates he held a place in each man's heart where only good true blood can be found and there are tears dropped over his memory which will ever remain moist, and act as an ever recurring dew to better the lives of those who knew and loved him well. In the people of the county in which he lived there is no second thought as to his worth and every county of township council before whom he at any time stood to present a case for adjustment accepted his word as to facts as all sufficient. As a husband and father I shall not speak for it is reserved for his family to mourn the loss of one who in that sphere was not eclipsed by the best or greatest man that has gone before. Good-bye Toby, the writer, with the rest of your associates, are so much better for their association with you, and one feels to-day as if your hands had been placed on our heads and a benediction pronounced that will do great spiritual work for future years.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

We hear a great deal these days about the increased purchasing power of a dollar. How does this apply to the farmer. The same quantity of the farmer's produce that would pay the interest on a two thousand dollar mortgage in 1878 will barely pay the interest on a one thousand dollar mortgage to-day. It takes double the quantity of the farmers cereals to provide an education for his children to-day than it did in 1878. Notwithstanding the increased purchasing power of a dollar the cost of Government has increased many millions since 1878, and the national and other debts of the country have reached the enormous total of $450,000,000. Think of it farmers that you have to pay the interest on this enormous debt in depreciated products and ask yourselves is it not high time the extravagant and corrupt Tupper Government was turned down, and its place filled by a more economical administration.

Thirty millions of dollars find their way annually into Britain as interest on our debts.

Corn for the manufacture of whiskey is admitted into Canada free but it is taxed when farmers want it for feeding purposes.

This election will be fought out on lists two years old and many thousands of young Canadians will be disfranchised in consequence. Uriah Wilson endorses the iniquitous Franchise Act.

The Trent Valley Canal runs through 19 constituencies and that is the sole reason why the Government has put thousands of dollars in this perennial sink hole.

power to cure. Hood's Sarsaparilla cures absolutely, permanently cures. It is the One True Blood Purifier. Its superior merit is an established fact, and merit wins.

A quiet wedding took place at the Western Methodist parsonage on Wednesday evening when Miss Edith Huffman, eldest daughter of Mr. John Huffman, was united in wedlock to Mr. George Vanalstine, of Napanee. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. D. O. Crossley. The happy couple left on a trip east where they will spend their honeymoon. Both are decidedly popular in town. The Express extends congratulations.

The funeral of the late Mrs. J. F. Smith took place from her late residence, South Napanee, on Sunday afternoon to the Napanee cemetery. The Rev. D. O. Crossley conducted the funeral service and paid a glowing tribute to the worth of the deceased. The funeral was very largely attended, testifying to the esteem in which Mrs. Smith was held by all. The Foresters, to the number of 73, and the United Workmen, to the number of 46, followed the funeral cortege in a body to the cemetery. Floral offerings and tributes of affection were numerous.

At one of Mr. Dawson's meetings held last week an agreement was arrived at between Mr. Bell and Mr. Dawson, whereby Mr. D. kindly consented to grant Bell and his speaker, Edwards, one hour between them. Mr. Edwards spoke one hour and fifteen minutes and notwithstanding the agreement entered into, Bell then claimed the right to speak. Mr. Dawson very generously allowed him twenty-five minutes in which to do so. At the termination of the twenty-five minutes Mr. Bell refused to make way for Mr. Dawson, stating that if the people wished to hear him he would go on speaking despite the agreement and the rulings of an imported chairman from Tamworth. No wonder the decent element in the Conservative party have lost confidence in Bell.

Mr. Dawson should be well pleased with the progress made last week in his campaign work. His meetings at Newburgh, Camden East and Napanee Mills must have been very encouraging to him and correspondingly depressing to his opponents. It is now acknowledged by all parties that Mr. Bell has destroyed every chance he may have had by his unfair treatment of his opponents in the present campaign, and his conduct in the last few days shows that he does not even hesitate to break a promise or go back on a fair bargain. And even his best personal friends have been led to express their feelings, and say "they are ashamed of him." On the other hand Mr. Dawson's fair manly fight, his upright dealings with his opponents, and his smiling confidence has won its way into the hearts of the people who may differ for him in their way of thinking, but must give him their respect and admiration that is the just due of an honest character and a generous foe.

Resolution of Condolence.

At an Official Meeting held at Sillsville, on the 9th of May, 1896. The following resolution was carried unanimously.

TO MISS JOYCE AND DAUGHTER.
Inasmuch as it has pleased Almighty God to take from our best friend, it is moved by J. B. Allison and seconded by D. Haugh, that we, the members of the Official Board of the Methodist Church of the Adolphustown Circuit, take this first opportunity of expressing our sincere sympathy in the great and irreparable loss you have sustained in the death of a kind husband and an indulgent father. We feel that in the death of William Joyce the Township has lost an honest citizen, the Church a loyal member, the Sunday School a faithful superintendent and this Board an efficient member, but we realize that the loss of these out side of your own home is not to be compared with yours, and our prayers is that, he that has promised to be a husband to the widow, and a father to the fatherless, will be your support in these your days of sadness.

E. S. SHOREY, Supt. MARTIN HAUGH, R.S.

A Strange Disappearance.

The residents in the back part of the Township of Sheffield are in a very excited state over the mysterious disappearance of Mrs. Spratt, an old lady over eighty years of age. On Sunday morning last Mrs. Spratt left her son's residence, Mr. Matthew Spratt, who resides on the California road, eight miles back of Enterprize, to visit a neighbor. She had dinner at the neighbor's house and started to return home. She was last seen near her son's home by one of the inmates of the house, but after some time had elapsed her non-appearance was noted and a search instituted. No trace of the old lady could be discovered and a search party of fifty men was formed and every conceivable nook and corner explored for the missing lady. Up to Tuesday night the only trace discovered of the old lady was her cane, which was found in a piece of woods a short distance from her son's place. The residents have explored every portion of the country, and on Tuesday night were still out vainly endeavoring to discover the whereabouts of the poor old lady. What seems strange is the fact that Mrs. Spratt was unable to walk without her cane, as she was very feeble and nearly blind.

overlooking the fact that there were real issues before the farmers to-day that they could see if he could not. Mr. Dawson then held the meeting until 12:30, the whole crowd with few exceptions stayed to hear his last word.

Principal Grant says that there is scarcely a page of our tariff from which illustrations could not be drawn to show that our tariff discourages industry, or that it is constructed not so much in the general interest as in that of some particular person or company that has managed to get the ear of the finance minister.

-Farm lands in Ontario have decreased some fifteen million dollars in value since 1893, still our farmers have the consolation of knowing that by paying duties of 70, 72, 40 and 25 per cent, respectively on coal-oil, rice, cotton, clothing and sugar they are keeping up the National Policy and building up a cod fish aristocracy in this great country of ours.

At the regular meeting of the Sisterhood of S. Martha and S. Mary held in the guild room on Wednesday evening last, a resolution was moved by Miss Hamilton, seconded by Miss Wilson that the sisters having learned that in consequence of ill health, the sister in charge, (Miss Shirley) is forced to leave home for a season, thereupon it is resolved that the sisters desire to express the deepest sympathy with her in her trial and wish her God speed on her journey praying that in the providence of God she may be restored to them in renewed health again.

We also wish to place on record our appreciation of the untiring efforts of the sister in charge, on behalf of the Sisterhood and its work knowing as we do that under God, whatever success may have attended our labors in the past, is due in a great degree to the untiring zeal and energy with which she has discharged the duties of her office. Carried by a standing vote. The Warden, who had taken the chair in order to submit this resolution to the meeting, then addressed Miss Shirley in a few words adding his testimony to that of the sisters. Miss Shirley made a suitable and touching reply, thanking all for their sympathy and good wishes and asking that the Sisterhood's prayer which is used daily by the Sisters should be made the vehicle of mutual intercession for herself and them during her absence.

ST. JOHN REVIEWED.

Professedly to lead us in the way of political salvation, but really to make the usual amount of statements too objectionable for Mr. Wilson to make himself, there appeared on the platform at the town hall on Friday evening last, a Mr. St. John from Toronto, not the St. John who saw visions on Patmos' Isle, but a St. John who sees visions and dreams on the opposition benches at Toronto, and blows them up occasionally to the unfortunate ones who are obliged to stay within earshot of his meetings. The audience he faced was one of fair size and ordinary quality, to which he at once proceeded to dish out a liberal quantity of taffy and slops. But he did not seem at home until he got fairly into abusing Sir Richard Cartwright and getting off the old blue ruin gag, which he did, greatly to the delight of the section of the audience that are always pleased to hear a practical opponent abused, particularly if the sufferer is one who was once one of themselves, but has left them in disgust. Abuse of Cartwright seems to be a safe delight for these slingers of dead cats to indulge in, as their utter insignificance always protects them from Sir Richard's wrath. For be it said to Sir Richard's everlasting honor "he answereth them not a word." The address, which was delivered with much bellying, waving of arms and stamping of feet, was listened to with fair attention, many of the audience being almost paralyzed by the absorption of so great a quantity of fiction and so little fact. The speakers (so-called) facts, figures, arguments and spotted dog stories, were all "old saws" raked from the ash heaps of former political campaigns. A few pickings from St. John's rag bag will suffice to give a fair idea of the whole, and here they are:

1st "Their is no place in this country for agnostics." A strange sentiment for a christian gentleman.

2nd "A person buying goods manufactured in Canada pays no duty." A half truth which is more dangerous than a lie.

3rd "Agricultural land in Great Britain has decreased in value more than in any country." On the contrary the value of agricultural lands, schedule B in Great Britain in 1842 was £46,000,000, in 1894 their value was not less, but slightly more. Can this be said of Canadian lands.

4th "The state of Canada from 1873 to 1878 was the worst ever known in this country." This is in direct variance with what is well known and remembered by thousands who were farming and doing business at that period of our history.

5th "Great Britain was forced to adopt free trade in order to get food for her workmen." If this is true, then agriculture during the time of protection must have been a fine time, but on the contrary between the years of 1815 and 1845 (when protection was abolished,) for thirty years the trade of Great Britain does not show any increase, and during the same thirty years of protection agriculture was at its lowest ebb, and although that country has had hard years under free trade, yet the worst times under free trade have been happiness compared with abject suffering that prevailed in the agricultural districts of Great Britain during the dark years of protection.

6th "There is no difference between coercion and concession, and I defy anyone to show where there is any difference." When A and B gets into an argument and B concedes the point, that is concession, but when A takes B by the throat and chokes him into submission, that is coercion, and yet this great oracle from Toronto can't see the difference.

7th "I compare W. Laurier to a dog with false spots on him, the last of which will be washed off on the 23rd of June, and then he will appear in his true colors." But why! Oh why! did Mr. St. John not tell us the oceans of acids and blue vitriol it would take to cleanse the hide of Sir Chas. Tupper of the gangreen blotches that cover it.

8th "The greatness of the United States was built up by blowing and teaching the boys to blow for their country from their infancy. This is what makes people loyal." Mr. St. John must have been raised in the United States, or born during some terrible gale, for he is the biggest blow that has struck Napanee for many a day. Let us hope that little damage has been done however.

9th "The best minds of Great Britain advocate Protection for that country, as we have it here, a stable protective policy." Our N.P. has never been stable, it has been ever changing and always getting worse. Protection in Great Britain would mean to us a loss of say $10 a head on cattle, $20 on horses and 5 cts per lb on cheese. How would our farmers like that?

10th "Protection and preferential trade is what we want in Canada." The sisters, protection and preferential trade, are diametrically opposed to each other. We can't have both.

And now, Mr. Editor, we might go on and enumerate a dozen more fallacies that St. John's speech contains, but surely these are enough.

Yours, etc., T. S.
